READ AN RDESPOND

Hi Charlie and Hannah,

Busy in Rome, but I might have the option to come to Matera already on Saturday by train. We then would have Sunday and Monday together with Kay. That would give us all more space, I imagine. How do you and the collective feel about that option?

best wishes
Curdin

Nov 10 11:38

Hi! Hello Olga Pulen@designacademy.nl

On message & not through email are importance factor.

Dear 3rd year / Minor students,
How are you doing?
I have a request for you.
Please choose a student who will represent your Minor-group in the mentor meeting that will take place on Tuesday November 20 from 12:30-13:30 hrs. (during lunch break).
That day, I think I would like to meet with you, together with Olga Pulen (the student counsellor), to hear and talk about your study experiences in the Minor.
And maybe there are questions and/or suggestions to share.
Please let me know Wednesday 12 at the latest who will represent you.
Thanks & See you!
Greetings,
Mona

FFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFF

Invitation to teach at OFFENCE

 Helen Brown

I hope this email finds you well.

I'm Karl. I'm one of leading participants of an administrative educational collective based here in Matera. We are third year bachelor students at Design Academy Endhouse, and are spending winter parts of our education, we decided to organize ourselves from the academy for an attempt to conduct our own self-organized curriculum in Matera. We called it OFFENCE.

Our intentions here are to learn from what the context has to teach.

We've been here since September, and are well immersed in our research(s). A lot of us, especially those working on their visual communication skills, have found interest in your work. We would like to know a little more about your practice within the context of OFFENCE.

That said, we'd like to know if it's possible for you to come to our studio space in Matera to give a lecture, or if we can visit you at your studio space in Milan/England to get an insight on your practice. An ideal date for us would be between the 8th and 20th of November. Via and thanks!

It's also highly important to mention that we are financially supported by our institution, and would be glad to offer money to return. For that we would arrange a contract between you and the Design Academy. We can discuss these details at a later stage.

Awaiting your reply.

All the best,

Karl

there's one research on Matera, very thorough, and lucas printed out the cover with the name, and you can find it on the russian online library, if I remember correctly it was called "Materan Contradictions" but it is not so much focused on archaeology, worth checking out though!

Dear CollectiveCharlie,

This looks great!
Especially the way you developed the 'outputs' of words. It think it can work very well.

Some feedback:

- it does not become clear how, after the talk between teacher and student, the final evaluation form is formulated in, etc. 'Who does what?'
- I would expect some more keywords with translation, e.g. techniques, design grammar (scale, color,...), object, system, outcome?
- What I miss now is the 'communication and communication' part of the process or the outcome.
- why is reflection not a part of the process?

Good luck!
Liesbeth

Added by Dominik Vrabčič Dežman

A screenshot of a Facebook interface. At the top, there's a search bar with the word "Quarry" entered. Below it, a list of suggestions is shown: "Zona Paip" (added by Dominik Vrabci Dežman), "Torrente Gravina (the river)" (added by Niels Lütken), and "Churches" (added by Dominik Vrabci Dežman). A dashed line separates these from "4 More Options...". To the right of the suggestions are two circular profile picture thumbnails, each with a "+2" icon. Below the suggestions, a comment section shows "3 Comments · Seen by everyone". A comment icon and the word "Comment" are visible. The main post area shows a video thumbnail of a person walking, with the caption "Karl Moubarak is a minute walking from the sculpture quarry. It is still under construction, and would be very interesting to look into when it comes to cutting tool, spacial research, performative or choreographic activities, etc.. I would recommend it to be one of the location we go to with Marjolijne." Below the caption are "Like" and "Reply · 12w" options, and a blue heart icon with a "1" next to it. Below the main post, there's another video thumbnail showing a person working with a large stone, with the caption "Fasi estrazione pietra leccese" and "YOUTUBE.COM". Below this video are "Like", "Reply", "Remove Preview", and "12w" options, and a blue heart icon with a "1" next to it. At the bottom, there's a text input field with the placeholder "Write a comment..." and icons for emojis, photos, GIFs, and a share icon.

A screenshot of a Facebook post. At the top, the profile picture of Diogo Rinaldi is shown next to his name. Below his name is the date 'October 17, 2018' and a heart icon followed by the text 'Add Topics'. The main text of the post reads: 'buongiorno a tutti 😊!!' followed by 'Is there anybody who would like to chat this afternoon?'. Below the text, it says '2 Comments · Seen by everyone'. There are two comment buttons: 'Like' with a thumbs-up icon and 'Comment' with a speech bubble icon. Below these buttons, two comments are visible. The first comment is from Emma Ljdsman, with her profile picture, and the text: 'Alex, Pierre, Lucas and me will be on our way to Eindhoven in the afternoon, maybe it's an idea to meet there if you're up for it 😊'. Below her comment are the words 'Like', 'Reply', and '12w · Edited', followed by a blue heart icon and the number '1'. The second comment is from Karl Moubarak, with his profile picture, and the text: 'Hey diogo, if it's ok, I would! Same time as last week?'. Below his comment are the words 'Like', 'Reply', and '12w', followed by a blue heart icon and the text '2 Replies'. At the bottom of the screenshot, there is a text input field with the placeholder text 'Write a comment...' and four icons: a smiley face, a camera, a GIF, and a video camera.

A screenshot of a Facebook post. At the top, the profile picture of Noa Jansma is shown next to her name. The post is dated October 16, 2018, and has a location tag for 'Add Topics'. The main text of the post reads: 'Hil Mauro just walked in and talked about a french girl who is doing her architecture PHD in matera for a year now and wants to meet us. mauro said that it could be interesting to meet her since she knows everyone and everything around here. she was proposing tonight around 6, or otherwise next week.... See More'. Below the text, there are three reaction icons (thumbs up, heart, and wow) and the text 'Hannah Segerkrantz, Lucas de Ruiter and 3 others'. To the right of the reactions, it says '4 Comments' and 'Seen by 8'. Below the post, there is a section for comments. The first comment is from Diogo Rinaldi, who says: 'I think it might be Marina, who is doing a research on the cultural capitals. Niels, you were interested in this, right?'. This comment has 1 reaction (thumbs up). Below it, there is a reply from Niels Lütken, which says '2 Replies'. Then, there is another comment from Noa Jansma: 'she's joining tonight!'. This comment has 2 replies, one from Niels Lütken. Ciao ciao,

Today I took out the money for the studio payment. Its €300 per month so
€27,27 per person. Please transfer it to my account here: NL28 ASNB 0708

Here is my proposal.

I would love to hear your comments on this.

make your own [im]penetrable fence

Since I joined this collective, there have always been talks about the boundaries that play a part in our relationships: being among us and the academy, among ourselves, or between oneself and the 'other'. One can even say there are barriers between our inner self and our external one. I believe there are still urgencies related to this topic that is worth paying attention.

WORKSHOP UPDATE:

Marjolijn confirmed the 3-day workshop and it will probably happen 5-6-7 november.

She proposed 5 hours a day (3h in the morning, 2h in the afternoon) which makes 15 hours in total. She is probably coming from out of Palermo because she wanted to visit the Manifesto there, so travel costs are probably gonna be ok and she's happy to sleep in one of our apartments 😊...

Ciao, Experimental work group is out. But we left a little gift behind: A proposal for working on Thursday.

4OKT: COMFORT/DISCOMFORT

WEDNESDAY.... See More

Community: Everyone gets the same amount of time/words/statements for one discussion, when the limit is reached the discussion is over.

Controlled explosion: Have a non-constructive fight with each other about everything that's wrong with the group and each other. Discussion is only over when everybody has let out all their frustrations and is ready to move on.

Kindergarten pitch: Explain your project in a way that everyone can understand, children, grandparents, on English speakers.

Bad Feedback: Only receive critical and constructive bad feedback on your project.

Takeover: Someone else presents / works on your project (highjack?)

FallFriday: Take individual/group project and completely turn it upside down, make it as ridiculous/bad/offensive/useless as possible.

Knowledge exchange: Share inspirations/books/sources/people/thoughts with each other and teach each other new things.

WE HAVE 1000€ EXTRA

Jenniika Schreuder

To: Hermann Caroline Segerkrantz

RE: Reuse of our call this morning

Today at 10:57

Dear Hermann,

Thank you for your questions.

→ Send you a specific description of the space we would like to have in the Campus building during the Graduation Show.

→ Send you a list of professions we would like to invite for a workshop in a lecture.

→ Important: it is to know what kind of classes or teachers will be involved (lecturer, workshop instructor, craftsman, student).

→ If it is a European citizen, then it is possible to give them or her. But we do need a CV of every person (background).

→ Start sending a weekly report on our progress and design → our website and Instagram account.

→ I will forward to this.

→ Send you all declaration forms of our spendings until this moment + 2 scenarios of how much budget we have left by then.

→ I have sent the forms to our finance department, so this is being processed.

→ Can you send me the budget and the hours per teacher?

→ I was also discussed that you would.

→ First of all, whether we can reduce the 1000€ from the budget.

→ See above

→ This is Emma Reuser (Emma.Reuser@comune.matera.it)

→ Find out how the contracts & CV procedure goes with the people we want to hire to give lectures/workshops, and their hourly fee.

→ See above

→ I will also send you the O&E email address asap. Hopefully in 1-2 weeks from now.

→ I am off to Italy for one week (in the Northwest) and will be back at O&E on October 8th.

Regards,

Jenniika

about Skype Feedback

Key Chatfuel

Individual skype timetable - all

To: Charlie

Hi Charlie!

I know you are almost today, which is great.

After the first week of skype feedback session yesterday and today, I have some thoughts.

I want to propose some new things to improve the quality of the skype feedbacks.

Today there were a lot of talk about impossible because of the fast reception or too much backgroundnoise.

This makes it really difficult to focus for me, and for you, on the feedback.

My proposal:

1. We make 2 blocks of one hour skype slot
2. Every student has max of 20 min time slot (scheduled right after each other)
3. In a one hour time slot there are three students scheduled
4. Those 3 students are in that one hour time slot the same space, with good connection and no background noise and preferably use one laptop for the skype feedback

The dates for the skype feedback, before my visit in Matine:

Monday 26th of October

Tuesday 27th of October

Visit Matine: 28th October - 30th October

Let's keep it for now on Monday and Tuesday: after my visit we will return to only Tuesday's.

Hey guys!

Today I put together some notes I took during the last 2 weeks and add some links to places, projects or books that I think might be meaningful to you. I'll try to keep updating this document every week or two with things that keep popping in my mind in relation to your project/experience 😊

Any comment, questions or feedback is always highly appreciated!

Miss you all! 😊

Hey guys! I just got a message back from Fra i Sassi, one of the hostels in Matera. Their normal fare is 23 euros per person per day, with breakfast. I was able to go down to a bit more than 18 euros. the deal is 8 beds, for 10 days, for 1450. It would be nice to get an answer on this as fast as possible to keep the beds. This is a really nice location 😊

During the last group call, it has been suggested (for tutors and ourselves) to say a few words about what we find individually appealing to focus on in Matera, have many tracks besides our global theme.

Doing this could broaden each of our personal points of view and provide direction towards what is possible to do/make there and have ideas;

I am mainly looking at traditional crafting materials and related artefacts: terracotta (traditional clay), papier-mâché (mainly religi... See More

Hey offenders!

What do you guys think about putting up a small presentation about your own work/research together so you can show people in Matera about your background? It could be limited to an X amount of slides, like a Pecha Kucha (20 slides, 20 seconds each), or a video, or any other way you believe represents you better.

Perhaps you could think about your own individual presentation, but also a comprised presentation of all of you together. Kinda like a group portfol... See More

Hey guys!

Thanks for the chat yesterday! It was so nice to see you guys excited about what is coming 🙌

I shared this handbook a while ago and I thought it would be a good idea to bring it to light again at this stage. There is some info on the history of Matera, on books and movies and some extra info that could come in hand. I think the movies are specially interesting at this moment as it can start to get your ears and eyes used to the language and to the culture 🙌

Nice to meet you.

We are a group of designers from the Netherlands, moving to Matera at the beginning of September for an estimated time of four months. We are looking for a place that is available for rent during this period.

Since we are a larger group, we are looking for a place that has multiple bedrooms and bathrooms. We are intrigued by the farmhouse as it seems rather spacious and seems fit to host our group with both its interior and large outdoor area.

We would like to inquire about the condition and the fixtures of the kitchen and bathroom ?

We are working on a project in the context of the Matera Capital of Culture 2019. Your property seems like an ideal space to call home for these months, beautifully situated between nature and city.

We would be keen to have a call to go more into specifics?

Looking forward to your reply.

SKYPE CALL - Monday?

I would suggest morning/lunch time or later evening (as Japan is 7h ahead) - so what about:

Mon, 13:00? ... See More

Dear Hannah,
I promised to keep you up to date during this week.
I have forwarded your proposal to Jurrienne and Joseph just before the holiday.
Due to the holiday period I have not had a response yet.
I will keep you all posted.
Regards!

Following up on my previous post, there will be a meeting today at the Foundation in Matera about the possibility of you guys embracing the project 'Caravansary 3.0'. More about the project on this link of the bid book (https://issuu.com/matera-2019/docs/dossier\_mt2019\_eng/78).

This project is about activating common spaces of stopover, like gas stations, bus stops and etc. Something I remember Joseph mentioned to you guys the first time we all met at Zbar.

There is nothing... See More

Hey fence-people!

Here are some updates. I have been messaging and talking to some people in Matera and I have to warn you that the dynamic there is a bit slower than what we are used to in Eindhoven. Especially during vacation months. I hope you understand that this might take a bit longer than you would like, but I want to reassure that I'm on top of it 😊

I went through the idea of renting a space/building that is managed by the city of Matera, or region, with s... See More

Diogo Rinaldi There is also a possibility to work with the Centro Pianelli, which used to be a Rural School and now is an educational center for agricultural technology and the local flora and fauna. It is located in between Matera and Montescaglioso, accessible by bus, car or bike.

Here is a list of potential collaborators... A separate document, but conceptually part of our grand Library...

Feel free to add anyone, the more the better for discussion!

I talked to a friend today, and he likes the ambition of our guest lecture/workshop/collaborator program, but he stressed that all of these people have busy lives, and prices, etc. So we should send potential invites to agreed people as soon as possible (Charlie in the lead on this one!)

Hi Charlie,

How are you?

Here a small summary of our skype talk. Is it possible to give me more details by mid august what is possible for you and also what the financial compensation for travelling and teaching would be?

Based on my artistic practice of working in context and may teaching practice of working with groups, I believe ideally we meet 3 times for about two to three days each meeting:

- Once in september to talk about how to work in context, orienting oneself in relation to the different players and expectations, everyone setting of a research to develop a project. This meeting/workshop would be nice to have with other tutors together.
- A second time after mid november, to evaluate the research period and discuss the conceptual/practical potential of the gathered material for projects. Also we could talk about developing evaluation criteria.
- And a third time in January to sharpen the formats of presenting/activating the different projects. Maybe in combination with the assessments, that depends. I wouldn't like to loose the third trip only to assessments.

In continuation we could talk about what Somalgors74 could offer your group during spring/summer 2019.

have a great time in japan

Salut les pals, hope holidays are goood!!
I got a response from Danielle Arets (Radical Ecology minor).
She's is still very enthusiastic about our project and is even eager to help during her own minor!
Besides, she advices us to contact Paolo Patelli (as Liesbeth did) and Maurizio Montalti (trans-disciplinary and rooted in a collaborative, research-based, anthropological and experimental practice, and lecturer:
<http://www.corpuscoli.com/about/>).... See More

We would be very thankful for any information, tips, or recommendations. There are quite some good options on airbnb, not too costly, but I presume you are looking out for the cheapest option. I would try via the Open Design School to get in touch with local students who can look out for good options for you. Please also get in touch with Paolo Patelli <Paolo.Patelli@designacademy.nl> and Maurizio Montalti - info@mauriziomontalti.com - Both Italian design researchers have a very large network in Italy, and might have some good advices. I could also reach out to the DESIGN@SCHOOL - whom we are partnering with they might have some good advice...also conferences, it might be nice to connect you with them anyway. Are you also in touch with the Capital Culture organisation? Especially since that is your overarching theme, you might get some support from the office in Matera organising it.

B) We are writing to you because your work inspires us, and we would be very interested in collaborating with you.

We would like to invite you to give a lecture, or organise a workshop.

Are you available between September and January for few days, besides your own R.E. minor ? of course, we will go to India in November and October might be busy because of DOW...but flexible to schedule things in between

From our side, we would like to get to know your way of working, learn from/with you, and welcome you to our living space. That is wonderful. Are there perhaps specific questions/ themes you are looking into? More than happy to visit you (Reverse!) but perhaps you have some ideas in mind already, so I can also look out for other interesting guests?

We are able to maybe cover transport costs, other expenses are negotiable.

If you have any questions about our project and our collaboration, feel free to ask.
LET ME KNOW IF YOU NEED OTHER SUPPORT
We are very curious to hear from you,

I super recommend checking out La Scuola Open Source from Bari. They organize their own classes/workshops, but they are also very opening to hosting/organizing workshops/events for people interested in teaching and/or learning. Could be a nice forking out of Matera and into a very activist group of people in the south.

Especially as we saw in the curriculum meeting that we can vary a lot between "playtime" and "work time"... See More

I reached a couple of people in Matera this week and apparently we already have a possible 90sqm storefront. This also opens up the possibility of some sort of engagement with the passers-by. It is from the father of one of the guys working at ODS. But there are some legal issues about sleeping in a place not meant for that. Italy is kinda annoying in that sense.

Mauro Bubbico is a well known graphic designer in Italy. And an important promoter of local identity. He is a major fan of Mario Cresci and a constant collaborator of the ODS and Matera 2019. He lives in Montescaglioso, a town 15 min south of Matera and known for the horses and horsemeat. His iconography is very strong.

Basilicata, previously known as 'Lucania', is one of the least known regions in Italy - more on the history of the region can be found on the handbook that I shared with you guys last week.

What I want to say by that is that it has always been forgotten. During the Second World War, for example, political dissidents were not exiled in prisons, or islands, they were sent to tiny, hard-to-reach, villages in Basilicata. An example of this is Carlo Levi, an Itali... See More

- what time again in maters? I think it is nice to know before. For practicalities and to let it feel like a success. Instead of leaving when you don't like it anymore

Niels' #Curriculum

- I like #kewithniels - there is a lot of potential for bringing in ourselves into an open structure of a curriculum - not a framework that limits us like the ones we are already used to from previous education and our current state at DAE

→ we should start from our own personal interest and see what happens from there

- I like the context-first approach - lets get our feet on the ground first, see whats there, and then base it on experiences – a walk to the horses, a walk, a random trip
- I wonder if we should maybe
  - A framework that starts general, but narrows in if specification is needed
  - A framework that allows many unexpected things to happen
  - I like #epnmyoungies, I think that's really what we should do, which seems to be our unconscious aim in a way, but to really go there and first take a look

This is the handbook we made for the participants of the two last workshops we had in the Open Design School. I recommend that you guys take a look at it. It has a brief history of the city, demographics, books, movies and some interesting apps. ma

As agreed, let's zoom out and come up with some fresh curriculum ideas!
The link to the general curriculum brainstorming info document is in the meeting minutes, but it should perhaps not be important except for some practical aspects.

HOMEWORK until NEXT WEEK
1. Come up with your own draft how a curriculum could be formed like for the collective minor. "All the freedom in the world"... See More

OFFEE

Go through these questions honestly. If you don't know exactly, that's alright. Nothing is set in stone. It is just to get a "Zoomed out" view. What would you like to learn in YOUR ideal minor, where you can be taught ANYTHING by ANYONE? If you don't have the answer for a question, kindly explain why.

Are there some specific topics that you would like to cover during this semester? If yes, what would they be?

What are some very practical skills you would like to acquire in the semester?

Dear Collective (Hannah),

It was nice to talk to you yesterday and good to notice that you are all on it and have a interesting and relevant theme to work with, that you are busy defining. It gives confidence that it will work out.

As we spoke about, here you will find the outline that might help you defining your curriculum. I have asked Janneke if I can send you the general competencies for the DAE and will do so when she agrees (they are still in development phase).... See More with sad news:

(ps please mark which date would suit with Janneke,,!)

Dear Hannah,

So sorry but I have just got an email from Joseph that he will go back to Italy on Wednesday June 6. So the meeting on June 7 cannot take place.

I will let you know as soon as possible about a new date. Ok? (very sorry)

Best
Joyce

Dear offence, because of personal practical matters, I have to decided to leave the collective. It's with a heavy heart, because I think what you are doing is quite special. I'm very proud of what you guys have achieved so far and I think it will be a great experience for all, unfortunately without me. You are the flagship of the school, now go and make Grima proud! ❤️ on a second note, I would still like to stay a part of the group to watch how you progress throughout next year.

Whole Earth Catalog

"The Whole Earth Catalog (WEC) was an American counterculture magazine and product catalog published by Stewart Brand several times a year between 1968 and 1972, and occasionally thereafter, until 1998. The magazine featured essays and articles, but was primarily focused on product reviews. The editorial focus was on self-sufficiency, ecology, alternative education, "do it yourself" (DIY), and holism, and featured the slogan "access to tools". "... See More hellooooOooo if you're up for writing the manual:

<https://docs.google.com/.../1gAY9HiUbahTOzDVNUvH1c0dPKu.../edit...>

based on what we find is not working in dae; our values (manifesto); necessities; curriculum etc

(4) overview of what happens of the course (details)

(5) intellectual + academic input - exchange with other people who we find interesting

(6) more focus... less projects... more going in depth

(7) feedback mechanism

(8) international teaching bodies

(9) horizontal education (no authority, no gap between teachers)

(10) soul (me time / us time - actively plan rest - emotional and mental wellbeing)

(11) everything that is produced to be documented and represented digitally (text, video, audio)

(12) classes based on actual input (not based on contracts)

(13) an administration, proper communication

(14) job descriptions - accurate, fluid (everybody responsible for everything! shared responsibility?)

(15) free working hours outside of class - 24/7 access

I can't really read what is in the illustrations on the last slide ( but I'm on my phone ). Looks nice, thanks for the world The word uncomfortable in my view is not exactly the equivalent of outside of our comfort zone- which I think is more what we are looking for, but it's not worth an extra effort- but whoever is presenting- that should perhaps be a bit explained 💜

WITHIN THE GOOD NEWS SOME MILD NEWS

So this holiday we (Iija, emma, alexandra and I) did some "field research" in portugal. and we came to the conclusion that with the philosophy of what we want to be as a collective we can find more fitting places.

Since we are a growing group, the place will be too small, and if we would rent more houses in the neighbourhood we really should've have a better motivation of going there. The village is really really really small, and socially ... See More

So I told my parents that there might be interest in the house in Portugal.

Hello yesterday with leisure we went to rotterdam in order to meet a guys that is having a project about building up an event/exhibition building with only the material that he find on the place itself. So basically there was an old, obsolete house before and he destroys it in order to take all the materials apart and construct something new. I can explain it a bit more next time we see each other. He was explaining us quite a lot the difficulties regarding city, municipality,administration with a project like this. Pierre, Emma and Alexandra were also there, they can share info as well. Ciao
